OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND CO.

NAPOLEON, O., DED. 2, 1886.

Congress meets next Monday.

It cost $28,555.888 to transport the mails this year.

It is said that Vice-President Wheeler is a physical wreck—a victim to the opium habit.

Ohio will likely cast her vote in the next Republican National Convention for John Sherman.

Frank H. Hurd has written a biography of President Cleveland for the Magazine of Western History.

Judge Beer's majority in this Judicial District is 51,508. He had no opposition except the Prohibitionists.

It has been discovered that Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are the largest starch manufacturing States in the Union.

British anarchists will hold a meeting in London to protest against the execution of the condemned anarchists in Chicago.

Col. L. F. Copeland will deliver his popular lecture, "What's to Hinder?" at Normal College Hall, in Defiance, on the evening of the 9th.

Blaine's majority in Minnesota in 1884 was 40,568, and the Republicans have a bare majority in the State of 2,480 for their candidate for Governor.

The Annual Banquet of the Jackson Club of Columbus, Ohio, will take place at eight o'clock p. m., on Friday, the seventh day of January, next, at the City Hall.

The standing army of Germany, in time of peace (as at present), is 427,273 men; France, 502,800; Austria, 284,000; Russia, 780,000; Italy, 170,000; United States, 23,946, not including 2,012 officers.

Ottawa county cast the least number of Prohibition votes in the State at the recent election, being but 24. Vinton county is next on the list, with 38 votes, while the vote in all the other counties range from 100 to 1,000.

Bro. Clark, of the Port Clinton News, lost a little daughter by death last week. She was in the 10th year of her age when grim death snatched her from the happy fireside and claimed her as his own. We extend sympathy.

Postmaster-General Vilas is Democratic in his lances, whatever he may be in politics. He is frequently seen, about the middle of the day, at a dairy lunch-counter, with a mug of milk in one hand and a piece of apple pie in the other.

To show that the Republican leaders of this state are a cheat and dishonest, we refer any candid mind to the recent stealing of the Legislature and the outrageous gerrymander, which gives 336,063 votes fifteen Congressmen and 325,638 votes but six!

The Toledo Bee speaks as though it spoke authoritatively when it says that Hon. W. D. Hill would not accept the Governorship of Dakota even if it were tendered him. Mr. H. intends to settle down to his profession when his Congressional term is ended.

On Tuesday, December 7th, the Governors of the States and Territories, the mayors of all cities of over 25,000 population, the presidents and secretaries of the board of trade throughout the country, and the presidents and secretaries of State agricultural societies, or as many of them as can attend, will meet at Washington to devise plans for the celebration at the National Capital of the centennial of the Constitution in 1889; and for a world's exposition in 1892 in honor of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus.

The elections are over and so we do not reprint the following for political effect by any means, although it comes from the Columbus Dispatch, a Republican journal:

"The reappointment of Haines at the State Blind Asylum because he can vote the blind inmates of that institution, and the reinstatement of the bully who whipped a female employee at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, for the same reason, demonstrates, to the people of Ohio the purpose of the Republican Administration to make use of the public institutions of the State for partisan purposes. Haines was discharged by the Superintendent of the Blind Asylum for enticing blind inmates to houses of prostitution, where he was actually caught by the Superintendent in company with several Blind Asylum inmates, who were compelled to play the piano for the amusement of prostitutes and their lewd male visitors. He was immediately discharged in disgrace and his disgrace published broadcast throughout Ohio. Now he has been reinstated again that he may marshal the blind voters on election day for the Republican ticket. Governor Foraker requested, indeed, demanded, his reappointment, and that, too, over the protest of the resident trustee."

They are having a big muss up in Fulton county over the County Auditorship. Under the new law, as it has been construed by some, a vacancy existed in the Auditor's office on the 2d Monday in November, the term of the present Auditor having then expired, and under the new order of things the newly elected Auditor can not take his office until the 1st Monday in September after his election, thus leaving a term of ten months to be filled somehow. Upon the completion of Mr. McConnell's term, who has also been re-elected, the County Commissioners required him to give a new bond, which he did. This it seems to us was virtually appointing him to fill the vacancy. The bond was given and Mr. McConnell remained quietly in possession of the office, but McConnell being a Democrat, and the board of Commissioners being Republican, the big Republican bosses, those headed by Sergeant, the defeated Republican candidate for Auditor, rose up and said it could not be so and demanded that McConnell retire and the board appoint some Republican to fill the vacancy. Of course this Mr. McConnell refused to do, so the Commissioners appointed one Kelley as Auditor, and so the matter rests. Mr. McConnell refuses to give up the office, contending that he has given bond for the faithful performance of his duties to the acceptance of the Commissioners, and his bond having thus been accepted he is rightly in possession of the office and will remain so until he is ousted by law. He has engaged Messrs. Ham and Tourville, two Republicans, but who are opposed to the bulldozers, to defend him, and will fight the matter to the bitter end from his standpoint.

"Pickaway," of the Cincinnati Enquirer, says: "An anxious editor wants to know what President Cleveland should do in the next two years to assure Democratic success in 1888. Let him keep right on as he has, and he will not only be renominated, but he will be re-elected over the Maine home-guard or any candidate the Republicans can put in the field. The President has done several things that the politicians must overlook. For a dozen years the Republicans scored themselves into power by yelling that it was not safe to trust this Government in the hands of a Democrat; the South would gain all it lost in the war; the negroes would be sold back into slavery; the rebel soldiers would be pensioned; the debt of the Southern Confederacy would be paid; the finances of the country would be upset. President Cleveland has by his conservative and statesmanlike course knocked these scare-crows down forever. The Democratic party is stronger to-day than it ever was before. Thanks to President Cleveland."

It is easy to find fault—much easier, it seems, than to commend. Fault is found because Hon. John McBride was the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, and fault is found with Hon. Henry Bohl, because, as Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, he did not succeed in electing Mr. McBride. We think that Mr. McBride made a good run and that Mr. Bohl made a very good Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee—that no other candidate would have made a better run or any other Democrat made a better Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee. The fact that the Republican majority over the Democratic party is about 6,000 less in the State than it was last year has caused us to come to this conclusion. —Wayne Co. Dem.

Jim Blaine is the most arrant hypocrite and unscrupulous and dishonest man who is now prominent before the people. He used his place when in power to enrich himself at the expense of the people and he pretends to a belief in religion, which is a disgraceful farce. He privately assured the suavely Protestant preachers that he was opposed to rum, Romanism and rebellion, while to Catholics he insinuated that he was a son of the true church. He is, in fact a very great liar and hypocrite. —Sandusky Journal.

The bomb-throwers and anarchists, Parsons, Spies, et al., of Chicago, under sentence of death for their Haymarket frolic, have received a respite, which has postponed their hanging to March, even if it comes off then. The law's delay and intricacies have given them this respite. Their case has been taken up to the supreme court, and that august body, like the supreme courts of all other states, is so in arrears that the anarchists' case can not be reached before March. Meanwhile the public is condemning the law's delay, which prevents making an example and vindication of the law by the execution of those murderous violators of it, who preach the substitution of anarchy for law.

A subscriber sends us, says the Hicksville Independent, the following from Dakota which he says appears upon the door of a deserted sod shanty there: "Fifty miles to a postoffice, seventy-five miles to a county seat, on hundred miles to a railroad, six inches to a house, and two hundred feet to water. God bless our folks. Gone to spend the winter with wife's folks."

We think the prediction can well be made that Geo. L. Johnson will be appointed Internal Revenue Collector for this district and that Gen. Young will receive the Custom Collectorship. Watch and see how near we hit the mark.
